LIVERP  L

Liverpool is one of the most popular destinations in the UK for study and Liverpool's universities are at the forefront of attracting new companies and entrepreneurs to the city.

Students have a choice of nine of the best universities in the UK within easy commuting distance, four of which are situated in Liverpool. All have impressive industry partner portfolios, providing strategic advice on areas such as research, curriculum development, teaching methods, outreach and collaboration.

UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL

The University of Liverpool (UoL) is the original 'redbrick' university and a Russell Group institution. Associated with nine Nobel Laureates, the University is recognised for its high-quality teaching and research. The last independent assessment rated 97% of the University's research as world-leading or internationally excellent, with the highest proportion of any Computer Science department in the UK. The University has campus locations in Liverpool, London, Suzhou and Singapore.

LIVERPOOL JOHN MOORES UNIVERSITY

Liverpool John Moores University (LJMU) is a leading research-active institution. The latest national assessment positioned LJMU as the highest climber for research quality. The University, which is one of the largest in the UK, prides itself on its global reach and impact acting as a gateway for overseas engagement and investment.

LIVERPOOL HOPE UNIVERSITY

Liverpool Hope University (LHU) is gold standard rated for teaching excellence facilitated by a community of academics and scholars who are of the highest calibre, with experts recruited from around the world. Hope collaborates with a range of external research partners both within the business and community sectors, as well as other Universities both nationally and internationally.

The University has a 100% international research reputation and rated second in the UK for graduate employment.

EDGE HILL UNIVERSITY

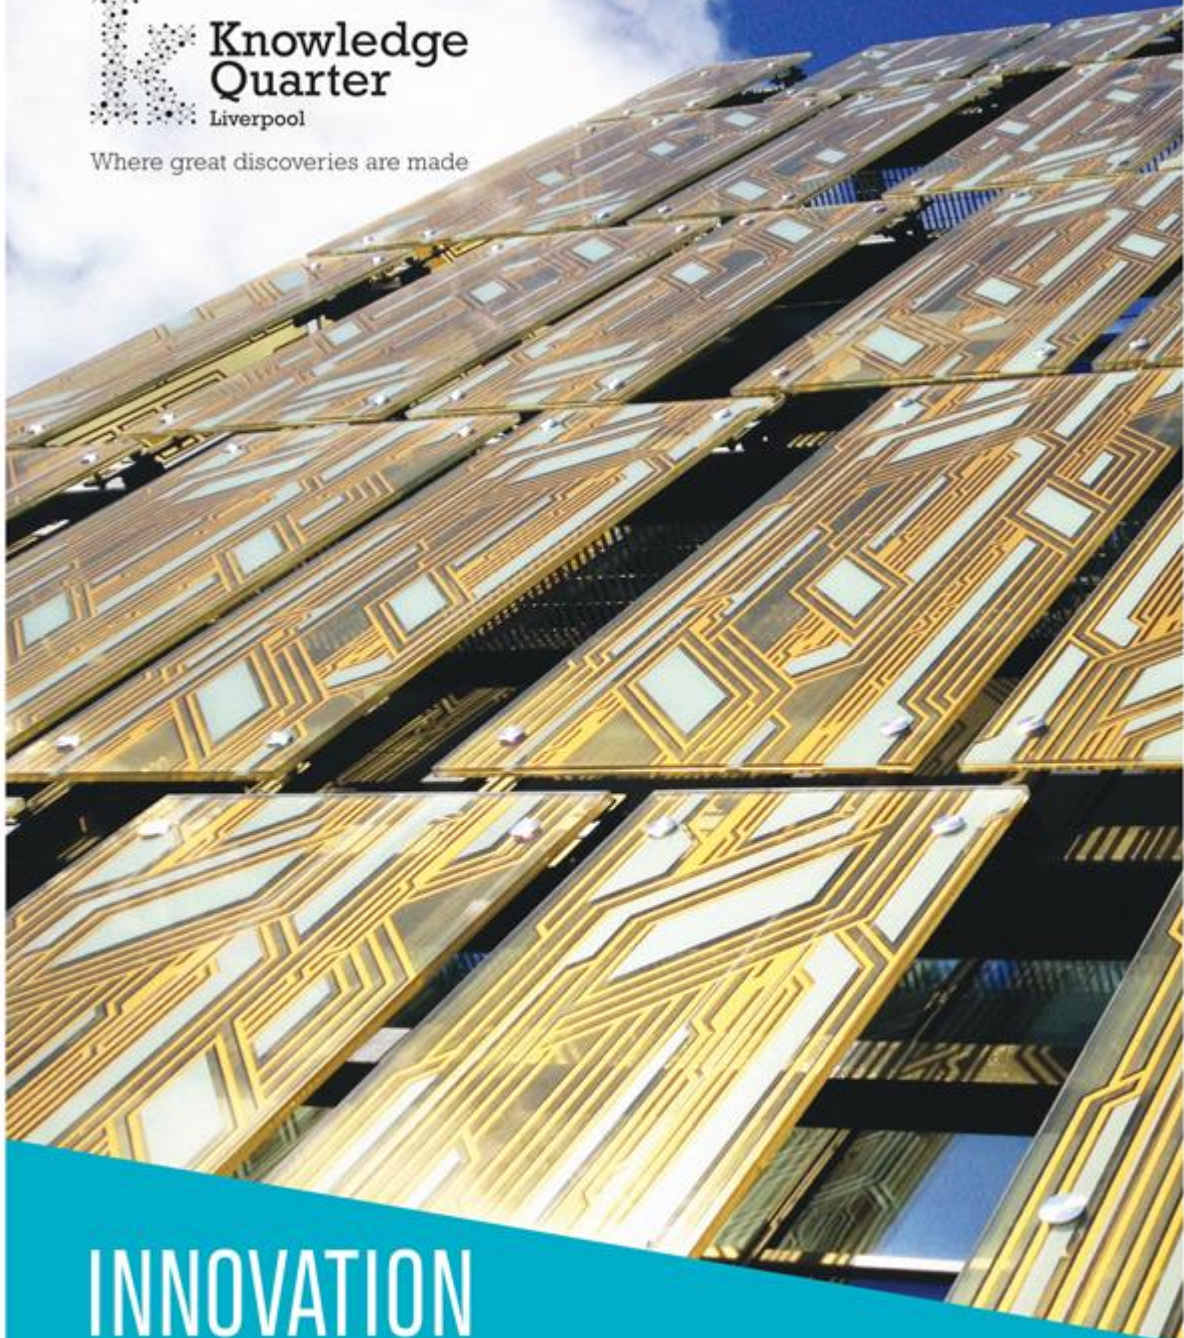

Edge Hill University (EHU) is based on an attractive, award-winning 160-acre campus in Lancashire, close to Liverpool. The institution is ranked as Gold in the Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF), the UK Government's evaluation of excellence in teaching standard. Research across a range of subjects is regarded as world-leading or internationally excellent with a first in the UK rating for student satisfaction.
